ORDER

KATHERINE B. FORREST, District Judge:

In light of the adjournment of the trial to Tuesday, January 13, 2015, at 9:00 a.m., the following schedule shall govern the handling of the juror questionnaire process.

The process shall be as follows:

1. Potential jurors will be given the questionnaire on Monday, January 5, 2015.
2. It is anticipated that the parties will have access to the questionnaires by 3:00 p.m. on that day.
3. The parties shall agree as between themselves which side shall take the laboring oar of filling in the spreadsheet based on juror responses. Both sides must agree that the Excel spreadsheet properly reflects the questionnaire responses.
4. The parties shall then confer and present the Court with a list of jointly agreed strikes as well as a list of non-agreed requested strikes not later than

Thursday, January 8, 2015 at 5:00p.m. (The Court must call prospective jurors who do not need to appear.)

5. The Court shall review all agreed cause-strikes and those proposed by one side but not agreed by the other. The Court may determine that it is appropriate to strike one or more of these (or other) potential jurors.
6. The Court will then separate the remaining jurors into two waves: the first wave will be those jurors who do not have potential or likely cause issues, and the second wave will be all others. The Court intends to proceed with voir dire initially using the first wave of potential jurors. The second wave of potential jurors shall only be called to the courtroom if necessary.
7. The updated juror questionnaire (reflecting the change in trial start date) is attached.

JUROR QUESTIONNAIRE

PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS:

Please print your name and juror number in the space provided at the top of each page. Please answer each question by placing an "X" next to your response or by providing the information requested. Please answer each question fully. Some questions have more than one part.

YOU ARE SWORN TO GIVE TRUE AND COMPLETE ANSWERS TO ALL QUESTIONS IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE. This questionnaire is designed to help simplify and shorten the jury selection process. The purpose of this questionnaire is to determine whether prospective jurors can decide this case impartially based upon the evidence presented at trial and the legal instructions given by the presiding judge. The questions are not intended to inquire unnecessarily into personal matters. Although some of the questions may appear to be of a personal nature, please understand that the Court and the parties must learn enough information about each juror's background and experiences to select a fair and impartial jury.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE WILL BE KEPT CONFIDENTIAL AND UNDER SEAL.

Please answer all questions to the best of your ability. If you do not know the answer to a question then write, "I don't know." There are no "right" or "wrong" answers, only truthful answers. Do not discuss the case or your answers with anyone. It is important that the answers be yours alone. Remember, you are sworn to give true and complete answers to all questions.

DO NOT DISCUSS YOUR QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS OR THE CASE WITH ANYONE, NOW OR UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTED BY THE COURT, AND DO NOT DO YOUR OWN RESEARCH ON THE CASE. The Court instructs you not to discuss the questions and answers with fellow jurors. It is very important that your answers be your own individual answers. Do not discuss the case with anyone, including the lawyers (except in the presence of the Court), your fellow jurors, your family, your friends, or anyone else. You must also avoid reading about the case in newspapers or on the internet, or listening to any radio or television reports about the case.

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The Court is selecting a jury for a four to six-week trial commencing on January 13, 2015.

The Indictment in this case contains criminal charges against one defendant: ROSS WILLIAM ULBRICHT, who the Government alleges used the aliases "Dread Pirate Roberts," "DPR," and "Silk Road."

The Indictment charges the defendant in seven counts. All of the counts concern the defendant's alleged operation and management of an alleged black-market Internet website known as "Silk Road," from 2011 to 2013. The Government alleges that the defendant deliberately designed and administered Silk Road to enable users to buy and sell illicit drugs and other illegal goods and services, including computer hacking tools and services and false identification documents, and to do so anonymously and outside the reach of law enforcement.

Counts One through Four charge the defendant with various narcotics offenses, based on the illegal drugs that were allegedly sold on Silk Road.

Count Five charges the defendant with conspiring to commit, or help others commit, computer hacking, based on the alleged sale of computer-hacking tools and services on Silk Road.

Count Six charges the defendant with conspiring to traffic in false identification documents, based on the alleged sale of fake IDs, fake passports, and other fraudulent identification documents on Silk Road.

Finally, Count Seven charges the defendant with conspiring to commit money laundering, based on the payment system used on Silk Road, which relied on bitcoins, a form of digital payment. The Government alleges that the defendant designed that payment system to facilitate the illegal transactions conducted on Silk Road and to conceal the proceeds of those transactions from law enforcement.

The defendant denies all of the charges in the Indictment and has pleaded not guilty to all of them.

HARDSHIP

Jury selection will begin Tuesday, January 13, 2015. The trial will commence immediately thereafter. Generally, trial will be in session four days per week, Monday through Thursday, from 9:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. The trial is expected to last four to six weeks (that is, until about February 10-19).

If you are selected as a juror, you will be required to be present for the taking of testimony and evidence for as long as the trial lasts. There are no plans to sequester the jury, which means you will go home every day after court.

Mere inconvenience or the usual financial hardship of jury service will not be sufficient to excuse a prospective juror. You must show extraordinary personal or financial hardship to be excused from service.
